To be exact, Raistlin harbors a secret hate for his twin's physical power, and for the attention and comradeship it seems to earn him, which Raistlin's own appearance and secretive nature denies him. Also of note, in The Soulforge, Raistlin develops a short-lived affection for a local town girl. He, already envious of his brothers popularity, stumbles upon his brother having sexual relations with the woman to whom his affections had been directed.

Raistlin Majere | Chronicles of Astinus | Fandom

I was drawn to Raistlin's character, and now I am very interested in reading further Dragonlance novels that feature Raistlin to see where his story goes from here. There are many fantastic characters in this book. The twins, Raistlin and Caramon, are very interesting dichotomies of each other, and I found myself liking both characters.
